FAITH BY HEARING

Scripture Reading -Romans 10:16-18

But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, "Lord, who hath believed our report?" So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God. But, I say, "Have they not heard?" Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

Today we live in a world that has a great communication system. We can call most anyplace in the world. We can view most places by TV. With the great era of communication, we have today, I began to wonder what the faith of the people is in. It should be in God, but it seems that it is in everything except God. The scripture said the sound went into all the earth. This part on God's program is almost complete. The Bible said in one place that the time would come when we will hardly be able to find faith in God. Christ told the disciples to go and teach all nations, all things, I have commanded you." The gospel has been preached and is still being preached, but how many are really accepting it in their heart?

SEVENTH DAY ADVENTIST

Rufus B. McDannel, Pastor
Sabbath School Lesson No. 5 for Oct. 30, 1971
Subject: Discipline In the Modern Home
Scripture Key Text - "And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely." Rev. 22:17

In an age characterized by a general lowering of moral standards and a continuing disregard for law and law enforcement, parents find value in taking time to think through the subject of discipline. Here we have a term used quite commonly by people on all levels of society. Yet one which is misunderstood. While the usual connotation is that of restraint and force, to get a valid meaning of discipline we must see it in its relation to the individual. A follower requires a leader, and good discipline in the art of leading. The primary objective of the discipline of children is to train them for self-government.

The training of the will to ensure a person's being able to make intelligent decisions should be the first work of parents, teachers, and others in authority. We shall spend this week discussing how this idea of discipline finds a place in the modern home.

Lesson Outline--1. Objectives of Discipline, Prov. 22:6, 2. When Should Discipline Begin? Judges 13:12, 3. Discipline With

REVIVAL AT DAVIS MEMORIAL

The Reverend A. Howell Franklin, pastor of the Powhatan United Methodist Church, is the guest minister this week for services at Davis Memorial Presbyterian Church, Prospect.

Services are running through Thurs., at 7:30 p.m. nightly.

Mr. Franklin is a graduate of the University of Va. and Union Theological Seminary at Richmond. He is an ordained elder in the Virginia Annual Conference of the United Methodist churches. He is married to the former Martha Barksdale Carter of Farmville.

Consistency. Luke 2:51. 4. When Discipline Corrects. Prov. 13; 24. 5. Attitudes in Discipline. Eph. 6:1,4. 6. Patience in Discipline. Gal. 6:9.

The question is asked -- How would you distinguish between "training" and "Education"? The training of children must be conducted on a different principle from that which governs the training of irrational animals. The brute has only to be accustomed to submit to its master; but the child must be taught to control himself. The will must be trained to obey the dictates of reason and conscience. A child may be so disciplined as to have, like the beast, no will of its own, his individuality being lost in that of his teacher. Such training is unwise, and its effect disastrous." Fundamentals of Christian Education, pg. 57.

In Chapter 3 of 2 Timothy verse 1, we read, "This know also in the last days perilous times shall come". (Read whole chap.) "It is because so many parents and teachers profess to believe the word of God while their lives deny its power, that the teaching of the Scripture has no greater effect upon the youth." -Education, pag. 259 .

In speaking of Jesus and his childhood training. Luke 2:51 has this to say about it. "And He went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but His mother kept all these sayings in her heart."

"Never correct your child in anger. An exhibition of passion on your part will not cure your child's evil temper that is the time when you should act in humility and patience in prayer . . . Kneel down with the children and ask the Lord for pardon." There should be a purpose in all activity related to the home and children. Paul says unto all of us in Gal. 6:9 "And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap if we faint not."

Liberty Baptist To Show Sat.

THE GOSPEL BLIMP, a color film based on Joseph Bayly's book, is coming to Liberty Baptist Church at 7 p.m. on Sat., Oct. 30.

The film tells the story of a group of enthusiastic but misguided Church people who set out to take the Gospel to the people of their town through the use of a blimp.

There's many a laugh when they try to get responsible pilots; when their "fire-bombs" keep falling in all the wrong places; when their public-address system goes haywire. Later, when well-meaning evangelism begins to change to "what's -good-for - public-relations," and Christian principles start to fall by the wayside there is a lesson to be learned.

THE GOSPEL BLIMP was produced by Valley Forge Films and released through Gospel Films,, Inc. of Mukegon, Michigan.

It serves to increase public understanding and appreciation of the schools, to secure civic and community support for measures to improve the schools, to encourage parents to visit their children's schools at least once a year, and to help students gain an appreciation of what the schools are doing for them.
